EXPERT BERTILLON

Lugs His Mysterious Charts and Documents on Stand.

CAUSED ROAR OF LAUGHTER.

His "Infallible System" of Proving Bordereau Authorship.

IT LOOKED LIKE HIEROGLYPHICS.

Witness Caused Half of the Audience to Leave the Room Indignantly by Remarking That Only Intelligent Men Could Follow.

Rennes, Aug. 25.—The opening of the fifth session of the third week of the second trial of the Dreyfus court-martial for treason occurred without any extraordinary incident.

The clerk of the court read a medical certificate signed by two unknown doctors declaring it was impossible for Du Paty de Clam to leave his bed to come to Rennes to testify.

Maitre Lahori, leading counsel for the defense, asked the president of the court, Colonel Jouaust, to instruct two well known medical men to examine Du Paty de Clam, but Colonel Jouaust refused.

Rowland Strong, an English newspaper man, was then called to the witness stand and deposed to the fact that Major Count Esterhazy confessed to him that he wrote the famous bordereau.

The next witness was M. Gohert, an expert of the Bank of France, who can claim the honor of being the first man in France to have declared in favor of Dreyfus. He reported on examining the documents in the case that Esterhazy and not Dreyfus wrote the bordereau.

The witness opened his deposition with a brief personal statement protesting against being characterized as a "doubtful expert" by the military party.

"But," he added in tones of profound pity and turning toward Dreyfus, "I have no right to complain and am silent when I see before me the unfortunate man who sits there."

A murmur of approval from the audience greeted these words of sympathy.

M. Gohert then repeated the evidence he had given before the court of cassation. He gave his testimony in a clear, convincing manner and was most emphatic in attributing the bordereau to Esterhazy.

Answering questions of the judges M. Gohert declared his conviction that the bordereau was written in a running, natural hand and said there was no tracing or other trickery.

General Gonse asked to be confronted with M. Gohert, and put a number of questions, over one or two of which the witness stumbled to the infinite satisfaction of the military witnesses who smiled and exchanged joyful glances.

Bertillon on the Stand.

M. Bertillon, the noted anthropometrist, was called as the next witness. M. Bertillon requested permission to bring in his diagrams and papers. The request was granted and M. Bertillon retired for a moment returning at the head of a squad composed of an infantry sergeant and four privates, all staggering under the weight of immense leather satchels, charts, documents, etc., which they deposited on the stage as a roar of laughter echoed throughout the court. Even the judges were unable to suppress a smile as they gazed on M. Bertillon's stage properties strewn over half the platform. A table was brought in upon which the plats he was using could be placed.

The witness began by saying that only intelligent men could follow his explanations. The court was soon half emptied as the audience, after smiling audibly at his extraordinary words and expressions, became bored and went out.

M. Bertillon commenced at his deposition at 8:30 a. m. It occupied the whole of this session and will perhaps occupy a good part of another day.

The courtroom presented a curious scene while M. Bertillon, whom the Dreyfusards in their most indulgent moments, describe as a "dangerous maniac," spent the three remaining hours of the session in explaining, in unintelligible terms, his "infallible" system of proving Dreyfus was the author of the bordereau. The majority of the public, however, utterly unable to comprehend M. Bertillon's theories, had left the courtroom. Even "La Dame Blanche" abandoned her post. In the meanwhile M. Bertillon, with gestures and in the shrill, pitched voice of a quack at a country fair continued his monologue as offering every minute some fresh paper, covered with wonderful hieroglyphics, copies of which he presented to the judges, who, with an expression of owl-like wisdom, carefully examined them.

Their heads clustered together, their eyes gazing on the long, wide strips of paper, while M. Bertillon leaned over their table trying to explain his mystifying diagrams, which were afterward passed to MM. Lahori and Demange, who, however, apparently did not derive much profit from their perusal.

Dreyfus gazed at the scene with a look of stupefaction. The clearest utterance of M. Bertillon during the course of his demonstration was that the handwriting of the bordereau "obeys a geometrical rhythm, of which he discovered the equalization in the prisoner's blotting pad."

The witness finally announced that he would give a practical demonstration of the writing of the bordereau according to his system.

Then he theatrically cleared the desk attached to the witness bar, drew his chair nearer, deposited his high hat on the floor, and sitting down began copying the bordereau.

At the end of ten minutes the people became restlessly impatient and Colonel Jouaust remarked that it was not necessary to copy the whole bordereau and that a few lines would suffice.

A few minutes later M. Bertillon rose, strode to the judges' table and laid before them his copy. The judges, counsel, government commissary, Major Carriere and the clerk of the court clustered around in one group nearer to see the result.

The audience watched this strange spectacle until Colonel Jouaust shrugged his shoulders and then the spectators knew that M. Bertillon had failed to satisfy them.

M. Bertillon noticed this and said apologetically: "I was too badly placed."

Maitre Demange, of counsel for the defense, returned to counsel's table and in response to a look of inquiry from Dreyfus, whispered a few words to the prisoner, with a shrug of his shoulders and a smile on his face. Dreyfus appeared perfectly satisfied.

Colonel Jouaust then at 11:45 a. m. adjourned the court and M. Bertillon packed up his belongings and the soldiers carried them out.

To the newspaper men who crowded around Maitre Lahori asking him for his impressions, counsel said there was a certain resemblance to the bordereau, adding "But that is all. M. Bertillon only did what dozens could do. It only proves he is a clever forger, that is all."

A Mysterious Message.

Paris, Aug. 25.—A dispatch from Lyons says a bag has been found in the river Rhine there containing a paper with this penciled inscription: "Lahori to Lorimer Basle—Nothing will be done. Dreyfus is innocent. Volunteer suicide. Orders executed." The bag was handed over to the police, but no explanation in the matter has been forthcoming. There is a probability that the letter is a hoax. Lorimer was the late Lieutenant Colonel Henry's secretary and he committed suicide at Basle, Switzerland.

Rich Cattleman Killed.

Engle, N. M., Aug. 25.—W. J. Spradling, a wealthy cattleman controlling stock interests in Chioride, was killed by cowboys near Fairview in revenge for shooting Miss Nellie McKinstry, of Marion, Ind. Spradling met the women while both were on horseback. He fired a revolver at her point blank. The shot took effect in the woman's neck and she fell to the ground. Cow-boys near by started after Spradling, who emptied his revolver at them. A fusillade from Winchester brought Spradling to the ground with six bullets in his body and head. He died instantly. Miss McKinstry will recover. No cause for the trouble known.

To Control Automobiles.

New York, Aug. 25.—The American Automobile company has been organized in this city to control the manufacture and operation of all the automobiles and motors in which kerosene or gasoline is used, not only in this country but in France, Germany and other countries in continental Europe. The new corporation is to be financed by the Colonial Trust company. Back of the combination are said to be William C. Whitney, P. A. E. Widener and Thomas Dolan of Philadelphia; United States Senator S. B. Elkins of West Virginia; Joseph Leiter of Chicago and others.

Berlin, Aug. 25.—Emperor William has conferred the order of the Red Eagle of the third class on Herr Rose, the German consul at Apia, Samoa.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY

Is Enthusiastically Received by the People of Long Branch.

SALUTED BY CANNON'S ROAR.

The Distinguished Guests Are Driven About to See the Sights and Witness the Arrival of the Scorpion.

Long Branch, N. J., Aug. 25.—President and Mrs. McKinley, with Vice President and Mrs. Hohart, Garrett A. Hohart, Jr., Attorney General Griggs, Dr. and Mrs. Rixey, Private Secretary Cortelyou and Executive Clerk Barnes, arrived here from Plattsburg on a special train of four palace cars. As the train drew into the station, the presidential salute was fired by Wilson battery, Second battery, National Guard New York and a detachment of troop C, of Brooklyn, presented arms. The president was greeted with great enthusiasm as he emerged from the car and assisted Mrs. McKinley to alight.

President and Mrs. McKinley looked in excellent health and bowed their acknowledgments repeatedly to the great crowd.

At 10 a. m. the reception committee and officers of troop C of Brooklyn and the Second battery of New York drove over to Normanhurst in six carriages and formally welcomed the president to Long Branch.

Miles O'Brien introduced the members of the delegation to the president who exchanged a few words with each on presentation. Former Senator Rufus Blodgett welcomed the president on behalf of the committee and extended a cordial welcome from the permanent and transient citizens of Long Branch.

The president in reply said: "I thank the committee and citizens on behalf of Mrs. McKinley and myself for their courtesies and hearty welcome. I cannot say just now what my plans are as Dr. J. E. Price, of Ocean Grove, has my promise to visit that unique stronghold of Methodism. I feel, however, I am bound by the desires of the Long Branch citizens as their invitation was the first. I have wished for a long time to pay this visit as I was fascinated by the surroundings of Long Branch when I first visited in this vicinity 12 years ago."

Dr. Jacob Price, dean of the Ocean Grove summer school of theology, called on the president and extended the formal invitation from the trustees and citizens of Ocean Grove. The president went to Ocean Grove at 2 p. m.

The president, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Hohart, subsequently drove to the iron pier to witness the arrival of the Scorpion. As the carriage reached the pier the trim little gunboat dropped anchor and fired the presidential salute.

They took a short drive along Ocean avenue and drove later to Normanhurst for luncheon.

Everywhere the president was greeted with cheers, handclapping and waving of handkerchiefs.

COBAN EXILES.

Released From Spanish Prisons and Started For Home.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Word has been received from the United States minister at Madrid, Mr. Bellamy Storer, that four Cuban exiles were released from the Spanish penal settlement at Borgos on the eighth and have sailed for Cuba. Their names are Rafael Joyer, Antonio Capablanca, Julian Alvarez and Roberto Rojas Hernandez. These men were political prisoners, accused during the regime of General Weyler of disloyalty to Spain and sentenced to penal servitude for life or for a long term of years.

Wheat Exports.

London, Aug. 25.—The Statist, under the caption "American Prosperity," says: "There will be very large exports of wheat to meet the demands of western Europe. American farmers are disposing of their crops rapidly and at tolerably good prices. They will be able to purchase from the east and Europe as fully as they have been doing this year. The United States has made great progress of late years in manufacturing and trading, but it is essentially an agricultural country and its prosperity depends mainly on the harvests. Therefore first wheat and good harvests of other productions mean the continuance of the well-being of the farmers who are the backbone and lifeblood of the country."

Love Did It.

Bedwood City, Cal., Aug. 25.—Because she declined his proposal of marriage, Jerome Turner shot and killed Mrs. Lillie Stalter and then shot himself, dying a few minutes later.

RACE TROUBLES RENEWED

Governor Candler Is Asked to Send Troops to Darien.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 25.—There is a renewal of the race troubles at Darien, a., and Governor Candler has again been asked to send troops there to prevent an outbreak. A few days ago Henry Dalegal was arrested at Darien on a charge of assault and as lynching was prevented by the action of the governor in sending 200 members of the First regiment, who brought the prisoner to Atlanta, and left a detachment on guard at Darien. Joseph Townsend was killed and Octavius Hopkins was wounded in the shoulder by John Dalegal whom they were trying to arrest. Sheriff T. B. Blount of McIntosh county wired Governor Candler urging that more troops be sent to Darien as the situation is critical. Colonel Lawton who is in command at Darien wired for carbines and ammunition, which was sent to him. Governor Candler has referred Sheriff Blount's message to Colonel Lawton and ordered the Liberty Independent troop to be in readiness to move.

Rescue of Gold Seekers.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Captain Shoemaker of the revenue cutter service received a report from Lieutenant D. H. Jarvis, the commander of the revenue cutter Bear, containing an account of the rescue of the gold seekers who rushed in the Kotzebue gold country, Alaska, in the summer of 1898. At Cape Prince of Wales he learned of the awful destitution which had overtaken the gold seekers at Kotzebue sound. On arrival there he found a terrible condition of affairs. Men had died of starvation, scurvy and by drowning, and he obtained a list of 48 deaths.

Brooke's Determination.

Havana, Aug. 25.—Governor General Brooke has virtually decided not to make any payments to Cuban troops on the basis of additional rolls. The first payments brought to light such an amount of thievery and attempted swindling that he has ceased to consider the question of distributing what is left of the $3,000,000 in supplementary payments. The sum now left in his hands he will probably use to assist wounded and deserving officers, who, under the original arrangement, were to receive nothing.

Censured the Governor.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 25.—The National Union Veterans' union adopted resolutions denouncing Governor Shaw for appointing J. Rush Lincoln, an ex-Confederate, as brigadier general of Iowa troops when they were called into service at the opening of the Spanish war. The governor, at a camp fire of the order, defended himself for this action. He said Lincoln was conceded the best military man in the state. There were expressions of disapprobation while he was talking.

State of Anarchy.

London, Aug. 25.—The Lebucon correspondent of the Reuter Telegram company cables that reliable news received there direct from Manila says that an indescribable state of anarchy prevails. The Americans, according to these advices, occupy a radius of 15 miles there; around the town of Iloilo they occupy a radius of nine miles and around Cebu they occupy a small radius. The rest of the country, it is added, is in the hands of the Filipinos.

May Enforce a Heavy Penalty.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The treasury department, up to this time, has accepted all compromises offered by banks for the settlement of fines where examiners have found them in possession of unstamped checks and notes. The plea in almost every instance is inadvertence. Violations of the laws have not decreased as they should and the department is on the point of adopting a rigid policy of enforcing a heavier penalty for every violation.

Demand For Colored Troops.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Great pressure has been brought to bear on the administration to organize a colored regiment for service in the Philippines. The matter is still under consideration by Secretary Root, no decision having been reached. It is understood that if such a regiment is organized it will be officered by colored men.

Not Strained.

New York, Aug. 25.—Captain Mathews of Sir Thomas Lipton's steam yacht Erin denied that Shamrock was in any way strained. He said the yacht was thoroughly washed out and was afterwards pumped out, which probably gave rise to the report that she was leaking.

Speech Appointed.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The secretary of war has appointed Alexander B. Speer, of St. Paul, Minn., chief of the division of customs and insular affairs of the war department in place of Major John G. Pershing, who has been ordered to Manila on the staff of General Otis.

SYLVESTER'S PROTEST

Against the Seizure of the Ship Abbey by Admiral Dewey.

DELICATE POINT INVOLVED.

The Owner Bases His Contest on the Ground That the Filipinos Were Allies of the United States of America.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The navy department has received a protest from W. F. Sylvester, of London, one of the owners of the ship Abbey seized by Admiral Dewey on the charge of carrying arms to the Filipinos.

He states that he is about to come to Washington to contest this seizure on the ground that the Filipinos were the allies of the United States at the time the United States arms were shipped. At the same time the state department through Consul Goodnow at Shanghai has prosecuted an inquiry into the shipment of the arms and a report is now before the department.

Based on the report the state department is preparing a letter to the navy department which will be the ground for further proceedings. The owners of the Abbey have retained counsel here to look after their interests and he has filed a number of papers both at the state and navy departments and called to submit documents in the case.

The ramifications of the Abbey seizure are engaging the attention of the state, war and navy departments and promises to have some interesting sequels. It is said at the state department that action is taken as to Consul Bedlow, our representative at Canton, because he certified that Mr. Sylvester was an American citizen and on this the Abbey secured registry. A private letter just received there from Consul Bedlow states that he is on leave of absence and is on his way home via San Francisco.

RETAIL BUTCHERS

Decide to Raise a Big Fund to Fight Chicago Packers.

New York, Aug. 25.—The executive committee of the Retail Butchers' Protective association met to consider means to fight the Chicago wholesalers. They decided to recommend the raising of a fund of $5,000,000. Of this sum $3,000,000 is to be raised by the retailers themselves and $2,000,000 by popular subscription at $1 a share, with a maximum holding by any one person of 20 shares. When the committee finished its session it had pledged subscriptions to the amount of $1,000,000. President Wagner said he had conferred with stockraisers and their representatives and was assured that enough stock to meet the demand for beef by this city will be furnished.

Fighting in Haiti.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 25.—Severe fighting took place Tuesday and Wednesday in the neighborhood of Monte Christ, Santo Domingo, between the government forces and the revolutionists. It is said that the former lost heavily, while the latter, owing to the advantageous position which they occupied only suffered slight loss. The revolutionists are reported to be continually receiving reinforcements.

Arrived Safely.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The following has been received at the war department from General Otis at Manila: "Transport Ohio arrived this morning. No casualties. Five sick left at Honolulu." The transport Ohio sailed from San Francisco July 26 with companies C and L, Nineteenth United States Infantry, and recruits, 11 officers and 726 enlisted men.

Bates Discharged.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 25.—James D. Bates, the cattle buyer who was charged with swindling the Union Stock Yards National bank out of $11,000, was discharged on his preliminary hearing. Bates secured money on drafts which were protested. The bank recovered all of the money.

Hurricane Victims.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 25.—It is now thought that the number of people who lost their lives by shipwreck and disaster attending the West Indian hurricane, which passed up the coast about 10 days ago, will reach 100.

WEATHER FORECAST.—Generally fair; continued warm to-night and Sunday.

In case President McKinley is renominated the anti-expansion Republicans will, it is said, put a national ticket in the field. This Philippine question isn't settled yet, by any means.

The Associated Press has issued a little round robin of its own as to Manila news reports. It says that its Manila men are permitted to send only inadequate dispatches, dictated verbatim by General Otis, and that the censor writes in its news dispatches phrases and adjectives tending to magnify Otis' operations. In other words Otis and his censor are suppressing the facts and lying to the American people, and the Associated Press cannot prevent it, but, indeed, must be the carrier of the deceit.—Cincinnati Post.

If reports are half true Gen. Otis has enough on his hands, without taking up any of his time writing lies to American people. It looks very much like the Administration is making a big mistake in not sending some other General to relieve him.

Congressman James Hamilton Lewis, of Washington, has accepted an invitation to speak for the Democratic ticket in Kentucky this fall. "I cannot be viewed as an intruder," says Mr. Lewis, "for there are few counties in the State whose graveyards do not hold and whose streets are not visited by some of my blood kinsmen. I propose as a Democrat to speak for the election of the regular ticket. The election of Mr. Goebel is a duty, not a mere privilege, of Kentucky Democrats. The gentlemen of the forces supporting Gov. Brown are doubtless sincere. There is not one of them but will in the future regret the departure from the regular ticket." Mr. Lewis' last sentence furnishes food for reflection. Some of the Palmer and Buckner crowd of 1896 have regretted that step.

River News.

The sandbars are beginning to give the packets trouble.

Greenwood for Pomeroy to-night and Lizzie Bay down Sunday.

The Cincinnati Post says the large steamers Bonanza, Sunshine and Nisbet will go to the bank and the steamers Reuben Dunbar, Greenwood and H. K. Bedford have been chartered by the White Collar Line to take their places. The little Sun is also on her way to Cincinnati.

Washington precinct tobacco has already been reported, but John Linnville has the best crop heard from. He has twelve acres; has cut and boused four of it and experts say it is the finest crop in the county. He is a famous haulder of the weed.

The next regular meeting of the Mason County Medical Society will be held at 2 p. m. next Wednesday at the G. A. R. Hall. Dr. J. A. Reed will read a paper on "Fractures of the Femur," and the society will discuss "Morbidity Proclivities and Retrogressive Tendencies in Maltreated." Dr. Ellis will open the discussion with a paper. An interesting session is expected, as a number of distinguished medical men from a distance will be present and take part in the exercises.

Last chance. Electric Park closes for the season to-night. The new bill presented last night is certainly a winner. "The Slow Mr. Swift" is undoubtedly one of the best comedies that has ever been presented to the amusement loving people of Maysville. It is as full of fun and laughter as it can possibly be. Remember to-night will be the last chance that you will have. The park closes for the season to-night. Come out and bring all your friends and enjoy a hearty laugh. You will find yourself more than repaid. Fifteen cents pays admission and car fare. Reserved seats on sale at Nelson's.

REV. WILLIAM STANLEY,

A Well Known Minister, Gives His Reasons for Supporting Goebel—Hot Shot for Bolters.

DANVILLE, Ky., August 23.—The venerable William Stanley, an honored minister of the Christian Church, who was a Chaplain in the Confederate army, thus refers to the circular that is being sent to ministers throughout the State by Rev. Coleman, of Louisville, who is conducting a literary bureau against Mr. Goebel:

"The question of Rev. H. R. Coleman whether I was 'in favor of an honest ballot and a fair count' was certainly gratuitous and discourteous. I heartily wish that all men everywhere could 'lift up up holy hands without wrath,' that there was no fraud, chicanery nor even diplomacy in political assemblies; that Democratic conventions were as dignified as sessions of a Supreme Court, serene as a May morning and guileless as childhood's dream. I would rejoice if they could be opened with a devout prayer and closed with a fervent doxology.

"But, knowing the average delegate, and 'what gulfs between him and the seraphim,' I could not well wait for the long reaches of divinely directed evolution to accomplish this before securing a nominee. This would mean continued Republican rule.

"I do not fancy the manners nor methods of any political convention where Bourbon and Democracy combined are only less explosive than dynamite. I see nothing in this convention differing materially from those preceding, excepting that amid all the storm and confusion there sat calmly and unimpassioned one really sober and temperate man, skillfully directing the movements of this body—himself a natural born Governor.

"The intense struggle for Chairman too plainly proves that Redwine only differs from another that might have been selected in that he favored Goebel, and not Hardin or Stone. After candidates and their friends have once submitted their claims to the decision of a convention and fought to a finish, every sentiment of honor and propriety stops them from subsequent protest—much more from bolting. Even if the convention were infamous, they, by working it to a close, became parties to its action, and now add treachery to infamy.

"The kicker, as a rule, loves self, not party; is loyal to policy, not principle, and desires to rule, not serve the people. If there is fraud it is the fault of Democracy, and should not be the misfortune of Goebel. Yes, I favor Goebel.

"1. Because we need a brave, calm and wise man in the present turbulent condition of the party, and rebellious attitude of lawless citizens.

"2. Because he is the author of a measure of law that alone could secure to Democracy its rightful supremacy that had been wrested from it by Republican fraud.

"3. Because he is a temperate man, able, consistent and ever loyal to party and principle.

"4. I am enthusiastically for him chiefly because he is the undaunted friend and knightly champion of 'humanity betrayed, plundered, profaned and disinherited.' Because he is 'tongued with censure of the world's blind greed' and dares to defy the power and perfidy of corporations and trusts. Because he is the friend of the oppressed. Because he is too true and too brave ever to be placed in a position to meanly and sneakily smile when the services of true Democracy and Republicans praise."

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Grotton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. I am cured now, and I thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Bennett worked for Mr. Robert Downing, of the county, and had charge of a yearling colt that had been sent to the fair for exhibition. PARIS Gazette: "Mr. Isaac Chanslor, residing near Millersburg, owns a fowl that is a cross between a peacock and a turkey. Its body is very much like a turkey's but the head and feet are those of a peacock. A long tuft of feathers grows from the back of the head while the tail seems to be a collection of turkey and peacock feathers. The fowl is a hen, and is at present raising about a dozen young turkeys. When Paris holds a street fair, Mr. Chanslor will put the peafowl or turkey or whatever it is, upon exhibition."

MR. MONTGOMERY PHISTER, a Cincinnati dramatic writer, has written a play in which Fanny Rice will star next season. The title is, "The King's Player." The Post says: "The play is a comedy of the time of Charles II., and tells the story of Nell Gwynn, born in poverty in Coal Alley in 1650, who, at sixteen, was an orange peddler at the King's Theatre and at seventeen the greatest actress of her day. New York artists are now at work on the scenery and costumes. Mr. Phister is now at Miss Rice's summer home at Weirs, N. H., where her company is rehearsing the play. She will open with it in Boston on November 1st.

Do not delay placing your orders and there will be no disappointments, as is the case each season when we are forced to resort to the river and express, which makes an additional expense. SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Democratic Platform Favors the Law Reducing the Price.

Republicans Oppose the Anti-Trust Bill and Bradley Vetoes the Fellow Servants Law.

[Extract From Speech of Senator Gehl at Mayfield.]

"The Democratic platform favors, and the Republican platform opposes, the enactment of a law reducing the prices of schoolbooks used in the common schools of the state. At the last session there was passed by the house of representatives a bill upon this subject, offered by Mr. Chinn of Mercer county. This bill fixed a maximum of prices for schoolbooks, on an average, one-third less than the prices now fixed by the school book trust, but that maximum was still 10 per cent above the average maximum price fixed by a similar law that has been in successful operation in Indiana for 10 years. In the house of representatives and in the senate every Republican vote was cast against this bill.

"What good reason can there be why the same school books, manufactured and sold by the same corporation, should in Kentucky cost 43 per cent, or nearly one-half, more than they cost in the adjoining state of Indiana? Such is the fact, solely because the law permits it, and because the representatives of the Republican party in the last general assembly did the bidding of the lobbyists of the book trust. If there be anything that ought to be made as nearly free as air as the law can make it, it is the opportunity of every child in the commonwealth to get an education.

"The Democracy of Kentucky affirms that it is as true now as it was when Jefferson wrote it into the Declaration of Independence, that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and that they apply to all peoples everywhere. They affirm that this nation should no more have a British colonial policy than it should have a British financial policy; that what would have been 'criminal aggression' in Cuba is 'criminal aggression' in the Philippines, and therefore they denounce the policy of the present national administration in these islands. The only redeeming features of the Republican policy of imperialism are the bravery and heroism of the American soldiers. [Applause.]

The Republican party in this campaign appeals to the people for support upon the record of the present Republican state administration. The present state administration came into power upon the claim that its Democratic predecessors had unnecessarily increased the public debt, raised the rate of taxation and misapplied the public funds. 'Let us look at the books,' said they in the campaign of 1895, 'and we will show these things.' For nearly four years Kentucky has had Republican rule; the Republicans have had the books, but there has not been, nor is there now, even a pretense that during Democratic administrations a single cent was misappropriated. The present Republican administration, when appealing to the people for support in 1895, promised, if elected, to reduce the expenses of government. It has increased them. It promised to reduce the rate of taxation, but has increased it. It promised to reduce the public debt, but has increased it. It promised to raise the per capita annual allowance for school children, but has decreased it. Never in the history of the commonwealth were there such scandals in the management of the prisons and insane asylums as under Republican management. The Republican platform complains that by legislation enacted at the last session of the general assembly it was deprived of the control of the penitentiaries. The Democratic wardens and other officials in charge of the penitentiaries when the Republican administration came into power had been appointed for terms fixed by law. The Republican administration turned these Democrats out long before the expiration of their terms. The Republican management increased the cost of the penitentiaries. The Democratic management under the new law has not only decreased the cost of maintaining and operating the penitentiaries, but has made them self-sustaining.

Republicans Arraigned.
"By the vote of the entire Republican membership of both houses of the general assembly at its last session there was prevented the passage of a law reducing to a just charge the prices of school books now fixed by the book trust, and by a like vote of the Republicans of the general assembly there was prevented the enactment of a proper and effective anti-trust law.

"Nearly every bill passed by the general assembly that would have given people relief from oppressive burdens was vetoed by the Republican governor—chief among which was the McCord bill to prevent extortion and discrimination in freight rates by railroad corporations, and both upon its original passage and upon the question of passing it over the veto every Republican vote was cast against this bill. This bill was entirely in the interest of the masses of the people of the commonwealth.

"The governor vetoed the 'fellow-servants bill,' which would have given the same right of compensation for injury to, or death of, railway employees by reason of negligence that the law gives to strangers. This bill, if approved, would have given a large class of employees who daily hazard their lives, for an inconsiderable compensation, in a public service, the same right that the law gives the traveler upon the highway. The gross discrimination that this bill would have eliminated from our law was removed from the law of England 20 years ago by a bill offered by Mr. Gladstone.

Black Faced Comedians.

If you enjoy a minstrel show don't fail to see Barlow Bros. at Washington Opera House next Monday night. The Salt Lake News says of them:

The Barlow Minstrels opens up a new era in minstrelsy. The performance was devoid of hoisterousness, and the usual rough and uncouth language, which is common with some of the so-called first-class companies; yet the vivid portrayal of the unique attributes and the volent humor of the genuine darkey, was charming in the extreme. The vocal numbers were all given in a manner that took with the audience from the start, while the orchestra was all that was claimed for it. The Barlow Minstrels will always find a cordial welcome awaiting them here.

Popular prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

"Have by some surgeon Shylock on thy charge to stop his wounds lest he do bleed to death." People can bleed to death. The loss of blood weakens the body. It must follow that gain of blood gives the body strength. The strengthening effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in large part due to its action on the blood-making glands and the increased supply of pure, rich blood it produces. It is only when the blood is impoverished and impure that disease finds a soil in which to root. The "Discovery" purifies the blood and makes it antagonistic to disease. When the body is emancipated, the lungs are weak, and there is obstinate lingering cough. "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the body on a fighting footing against disease, and so increases the vitality that disease is thrown off, and physical health perfectly and permanently restored. It has cured thousands who were hopeless and helpless, and who had tried all other means of cure without avail.

Twenty-one one-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing only will obtain a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, in paper cover. Send thirty-one stamps if cloth binding is preferred. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
